

VCE Accounting Unit 4: Nano Exam 10. Marks = 32. Time = 32 minutes.

Lisa manages LightBeam, a business that trades in lighting fittings for cash and on credit. The business uses control accounts, the perpetual stock system using the FIFO method of cost assignment and the accrual accounting system.

The following information is provided at 30/5/29:

Stock	Quantity	Unit Cost $
Director's Desk Lamps	30	40

Memo #88. The Director's Desk Lamps are not selling well and are shop soiled. Lisa decides to sell them for $38.50 each, including $3.50 GST and a special stand to display them will cost $297 including $27 GST. (This display stand will only be used for this sale).

1.1 Calculate the net realisable value for the Director's Desk Lamps in total and per unit. 3 marks
30 units X $35 per unit = $1050. $1050 less $270 = $780. $780/30 units = $26 per unit.

1.2 Define net realisable value (NRV). 1 mark
Estimated selling price less estimated costs to sell/market/distribute the stock.

1.3 Explain when the NRV is used instead of historical cost when valuing stock? In your answer refer to an appropriate accounting principle. 3 marks
NRV is only used to value stock where NRV is less than the historical cost of the stock. This is consistent with the accounting principle of conservatism which aims to provide stakeholders with the lowest/most relevant profit (calculation of profit includes stock write down which reduces profit) and asset valuations (stock is valued at the lower of cost and NRV which reduces the value of reported stock control.

1.4 Record the imp This is the stock write down. following stock card: 2 marks

STOCK CARD: Director's Desk Lamps. FIFO
2029		IN			OUT			BALANCE
Date	Details	QTY.	COST	VALUE	QTY.	COST	VALUE	QTY.	COST	VALUE
30/5	Balance							30	40	1200
	Memo 88				30	14	420	30	26	780

Stock is now valued at the lower of cost and NRV.

1.5 Record Memo #88 in the General Journal provided: 3 marks

30/5/29	Stock write down	420
	Stock control		420
	Memo #88. Director's desk lamps.

1.6 Excluding damage, explain other possible causes of a business valuing a stock line at less than its cost. 2 marks
Change of consumer tastes and preferences, obsolescence, deliberate marketing campaign to attract customers (loss leader).

1.7 Identify the impact of Memo #88 on the accounting equation.

3 marks

Assets	Liabilities	Owners Equities
Decrease stock control $420.	No impact	Decrease $420 due to profit impact of stock write down.

1.8 Which qualitative characteristic is compromised by valuing stock at the lower of cost and net realisable value and which qualitative characteristic prevails in this situation?

2 marks

'Reliability' is compromised since net realisable value, NRV, is an estimation which will impact on the calculation of profit and the valuation of assets and owners equity.

'Relevance' prevails since stakeholders are being provided with more relevant information in the reports including a more conservative profit and stock control value.
