

LE LEARNING VCE STUDY GUIDE

Table of Contents

Introduction	2
A List of Important Quote	6
Analysis of the Theme	9
Analysis of the Character	15
Sample Essay 1	23
'The Women of Troy shows a world without justice.' To what extent do you agree?
Sample Essay 2	26
Is there any indication of hope or relief for the Trojan survivors, or is The Women of Troy completely hopeless?
Sample Essay 3	29
In Euripides' portrayal, the Greeks are irredeemably evil.' Do you agree?
Sample Essay 4	32
The Women of Troy attacks men and their actions. Do you agree?
Sample Essay 5	35
In The Women of Troy, the women are not mere victims, they are heroic in their own right.
Sample Essay 6	38
'Euripides argues that women and children are the true victims of war.' Do you agree?
Sample Essay 7	41
How does The Women of Troy explore loss?
Sample Essay 8	44
'Poor Troy. Ten thousand men are dead For one woman's hated marriage bed.' Are the Chorus right to blame Helen for the horrors which befall Troy?	